BANKERS HELPING FOOD DRAFT PLAN

R. S. Hawes, President of Association, Explains System of European Relief.

Work Is Being Done Under and By the Advice of Herbert Hoover.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.-Richard Hawes of St. Louis, president of the American Bankers Association, has Atten to all of the 22,687 member banks of the association again urgins ration during the coming winter conths, which, according to field men fust returned from Europe, threatens to just returned from Europe, threatens to be the most precarious since the war.

Food drafts have been on sale for the last eight months in 4,458 banks, members of the association, in the United States; $5 banks in Canada and 25 in Central and South America. The success of the plan may be judged by the fact that in the first six months of its operation 190,000 of the drafts were sold, aggregating $4,500,000. The food draft plan, Mr. Hoover announces, will be continued through the winter and spring.
The American Relief Administration has announced that the banks which have cooperated with it in the sale of the food drafts are very importantly responsible because of their cooperation for the substantial relief that has been rendered thousands of families in Europe by relatives and friends in this country. Through economical management of the food draft system, to the success of

Through economical management of the food draft system, to the success of which. Mr. Hoover says, the banks have contributed so materially, there has accrued a surplus of $805.194.61, which, in accordance with the plan, has been turned over entirely to the American Helief Administration's Europeon Children's Fund, also under the direction of Mr. Hoover, and through which undernourished children of Central Europe have benefited. The same procedure, in case of any surplus, will be followed in the future.

The extension of the food draft plan

The extension of the food draft plan through the coming months undoubtedly will avert much misery. It offers a remarkable opportunity for American friends and relatives of needy Europeans to supply them with essential food at reasonable prices."

The American Bankers Association, when the plan was first presented to it last winter for indorsement, was quick to recognize in it the essentials of a thoroughgoing, far-reaching business man's system of relief, which, from the yest scale of its operations, would reduce administrative expense to a minimum and provide a definite and systematic means of alleviating distress, at e means of alleviating distress, at same time preventing any tendency and the pauperization of the ben-

WHEAT MARKET IS

Cent to Two Cents Up-

The wheat market, after opening lower cents a bushel higher. Selling at the Port Arthur. Salled Nov 30, str Madonna (Fr). New start was encouraged by the report of another bank failure in the Northwest and advices that 750,000 bushels of wheat had been sold for the December price to go to store. The decline, however, was checked by short covering, and deliveries not only recovered their early losses but were quoted for 3½ to 3% cents a bushel more than they were at Friday's close. Covering was due to the strong tone of the Winnipeg markets, good cash demand, assertions that the clearances of Northern wheat would not start was encouraged by the report of good cash demand, assertions that the clearances of Northern wheat would not grade and estimates placing Friday's export business at about 2,000,000 bushels. Strength in Winnipeg was attributed to buying by the Brittsh commission, and shorts were anxious to get their orders before the close of navigation. Late in the session, however, realizing sales caused a reaction from the izing sales caused a reaction from the day's best prices.

Corn moved under the influence of wheat, opening lower, rallying and then suffering a reaction from the day's high. The close was 's cent to 's cent higher. Cash houses and commission firms supported the market, although the cash market was weaker. Receipts were estimated at 1,000 cars, and cash houses reported a little more to arrive.
